

Wednesday
20th October

innovative workplaces
Developing Organisations for the Future

An interactive Symposium on Employee Engagement

on behalf of the

Acas East Midlands
Employment Relations Forum

Celebrating and sharing outcomes from the Innovative Workplaces Project:

- ◆ Forum Theatre—bringing the innovative workplace to life on stage and engaging delegates as the drama unfolds
- ◆ Learning from the project and future directions in employee engagement and workplace innovation: a discussion led by Professor Peter Totterdill
- ◆ Keynote address by Julie Crabtree (Director of the Jersey Postal Service)
- ◆ Interactive panel discussion with project participants

The Innovative Workplaces Project has been funded by the East Midlands Development Agency (emda). The Project is led by Acas with support from the UK Work Organisation Network (UKWON).

FREE EVENT

Registration 08.45
Symposium 09.15–14.00
(Lunch included)

FREE
EVENT

New Art Exchange, Gregory Boulevard, Nottingham
(Easily accessible by NET and free parking on the Forest Park & Ride—50 metres)

acas

UKWON
THE UK WORK ORGANISATION NETWORK

BOOK YOUR PLACE NOW!
Email abryant@acas.org.uk

More information?
Phone 0115 924 6544

Employee Engagement - the key to sustainable success

An engaged workforce is no longer just nice to have: it's about survival. Evidence from across the world shows that organisations with engaged workforces perform better than those without - and that they are much more resilient against the challenges posed by the global economy. Employee engagement is not just an HR concern but affects productivity, innovation and quality as well as the well-being of your workforce.

The problem is how to achieve it.

Employee engagement is not just another fad or initiative. High levels of engagement happen when every aspect of the organisation's practices are aligned.

Learn about how you can make this happen. Listen to those who are achieving it - from Jersey Post to a small wholesaler. Share ideas and experiences.

JOIN US IN NOTTINGHAM ON 20TH OCTOBER